Notice to Employers / Employees

NEVADA SAFETY AND HEALTH PROTECTION ON THE JOB

The Nevada Occupational Safety and Health Act, NRS Chapter 618, provides job safety and health protection for workers through the promotion of safe and healthful working conditions throughout the State of Nevada. Requirements of the Act include the following:

LINEAU EATS.

Each employer shall furnish to each of his employees employment and a place of employment free from recognized hazards that are causing or are fielely to cause death or serious physical harm to kemployees, and shall comply with occupational safety and health standards adopted under the Act.

EMPLOYEES:

Each employee shall comply with all occupational safety and health standards, rules, regulations and orders issued under the Act that apply to his own actions and conduct on the job. The Nevada Occupational Safety and Health Administration (Nevada OSHA) of the Division of Industrial Relations, Department of Business and Industry, has the primary responsibility or administering the Act. Nevada OSHA enforces occupational safety and health standards, and its Control. Safety and Health Representatives/ Industrial Hygienists conduct jobsite inspections to ensure compliance with the Act.

The Act requires that a representative of the employer and a representative authorized by the employees be given an opportunity to accompany the Nevada OSHA inspector for the purpose of aiding the inspection.

Where there is no authorized employee representative, the Nevada OSHA Safety and Health Representative/ Industrial Hyglenist must consult with a reasonable number of employees concerning safety and health conditions in the workplace.

Employees, public or private, or their representatives have the right to file a complaint with the nearest Nevada OSHA office requesting an inspection if they believe unsafe or unhealthful conflictnes exist in their workplace. Nevada OSHA will hold conflidential names of employees complaining.

compaints or otherwise exercising their nights inder the Act An employee, bullic or private, who believes he has been discriminated against may file a complaint within thirty (30) days of the alleged discrimination with the nearest Newada OSHA office or with Occupational Safety and Health Administration, U.S. Department of Labor, 90 7th Street, Sulte 18100, San Francisco, CA 94103.

If upon inspection Nevada OSHA believes an employer has violated the Act, a citation alleging such violations will be issued to the employer. Each citation will specify a time period within which the alleged violation must be corrected.

period within the alleged violation must be corrected. The Newda OSHA citation must be prominently displayed at or near the place of alleged violation for three days, or until it is corrected, whichever is later, to warn employees of dangers that may exist there.

PROPOSED PENALTY: PRIVIOUS PERMATT:

The Act provides for mendatory penalties against employers of up to $16,31 for each serious violation and for optional penalties of up to $16,31 for each nonestious violation. Penalties of up to $16,31 for each nonestious violation. Penalties of up to $16,31 for each nonestious violation. Penalties of up to $16,31 for each nonestious violation.
